

Population loss versus portfolio complexity

Boundary target | $b = 1.5$ | 2,000 directions | 500 independent paths per T

Exact population loss, averaged over 500 fitted paths per T ; shaded bands are pointwise 95% Monte Carlo intervals.

Dashed line: attainable loss floor $Q^* = 0.84$. Every evaluated penalty is shown; no imposed curve shape.